BASIS OF THE ACTIVITY

■ Education is a key factor of society creating and the key to a successful Ukraine.

■ Teachers can distribute the changes best of all investing into each other.

■ Teaching from teacher to teacher is an effective way to grow in a pedagogical profession.

■ Leaders of teachers' communities play the crucial role in the growth of other teachers and in their decision to remain in the profession.

■ Networks of mutual help are extremely important ways of preparation and professional sustainability of teachers.

APPROACH

- Strengthening of educational communities by maintaining leadership potential and mutual assistance practices.
- Drawing the attention of sector leaders and stakeholders of education.
- Non-discrimination and integrity.
- Promotion of teachers to the level of decision making on the principle of "nothing about us without us".
- Study of the best world experience and a well-balanced transfer of it into Ukrainian realities.
- Scientific basis of decisions and actions; research is an obligatory component of organizational and pedagogical activity.

RESULT

Teachers are ready to be leaders in changing their schools and communities.

Teachers are systematically improving themselves: they develop new competencies, adapt them and use experience at a lesson every day.

The best people go into the pedagogical profession and remain in it.
